The First Interference Since
Strike in Petersburg.

STRIKERS' PLACES FILLED

Four Chinamen indicted by the Grand Jury for Washing Clothes Without a License—Passenger & Power Company Buys a Farm.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., July 16.—Passengers on a car on the Peninsula Park line early last evening were somewhat frightened by the derailling of the car at Washington and Chappel Streets. Some mischievous person had filled with a spike the groove of the track at the curve. No one was injured, and the car went on its way without further interruptions. This is the first evidence of any attempt to interfere with the cars in Petersburg since the strike began. It is believed that the person who put this obstruction on the way was probably a boy, prompted more by mischief than by malice.

The places of all the strikers are now about full and all cars are running without any hindrance, and the people are now riding very freely.

THE UNLICENSED.
Four Chinamen were indicted by the grand jury today for conducting laundry without a license. With some citizens the question arises whether the city has the right to require license of these men. They are Sam Lee, Lee Sam, Woo Long, Wah Quong.

Indictments were brought against William H. Wallace, colored, for burning down a house at the corner of Main and W. Stone for running back on the street without license. Other cases will be before the jury to-morrow morning. The cases will be tried Saturday morning.

Well known farmer in Dinwiddie county has sold his farm to the Virginia Passenger and Power Company for $7,000. He purchased this farm some time ago for $2,000. Recently he sold from it timber for $2,000, making the amount received from the Virginia Passenger and Power Company clear profit.

The participants in the Crater fight will meet in the office of Mr. George S. Bernard to-morrow to organize a bivouac.

BIG EXCURSION.
High Street Church carried an excursion party to Buckroe Beach to-day. Mr. Isham Dray was the manager, and the crowd filled about nineteen coaches. For many seasons this has been the most largely patronized of the excursions that leave Petersburg, due largely to the efficient work of Mr. Dray.

The body of Mrs. Ella May Morris, daughter of Captain Bennett, of the Salvation Army in this city, has been taken to Baltimore for burial. Mrs. Morris was ill in this city for several months. She died at the residence of her father, Mr. Bennett, at Petersburg from Dinwiddie county, where he went to attend the funeral of his mother, near Wilson's Depot. Mrs. Higgins died Sunday at the age of sixty-two years.

TELPHONES.

The Petersburg Telephone Company has secured right of way to Chesterfield Courthouse, and telephone communication between Petersburg and Chesterfield Courthouse will soon be established. Chesterfield Charles, an old colored woman, whose home is at Benning, Hanover, in Chesterfield, was recently discharged from Central State Hospital. The unfortunate woman became insane the second time, and was brought back to the hospital to-day. She was quite violent.

RISON FOR THE SENATE

Efforts to Bring Out Candidate Against Him Failed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., July 16.—Yesterday was the last day candidates for the Senate and House of Delegates from this district, composed of Danville and Pittsylvania counties, could file their notice of candidacy, under the present primary plan. Colonel George C. Cabell, a brilliant and popular politician of Chatham, is the only name offered for the Senate.

At the House of Delegates nine gentlemen appear to be willing to serve. They are: Messrs. J. W. Bruce, J. B. Pannell, J. D. Reynolds, J. E. Taylor, W. B. Jones, J. L. Doyson, W. L. Powers and J. W. Gregory. Major J. W. Bruce is the only candidate from this district. Major Bruce, in addition to being a candidate for the regular term, is also candidate for the one year for the short term to fill the unexpired term of Colonel George C. Cabell, resigning.

Yesterday being the last day for the announcement of candidates, the friends of Governor Montague made strenuous efforts to bring out a candidate in opposition to Major Rison. A committee of the Governor's friends offered their support to several gentlemen, among them Mr. H. C. Custer, Jr., of Berkeley, Va., and Colonel George C. Cabell, Sr., all of whom declined to run.

The committee composed of Messrs. W. R. Mitchell, D. A. Tye, George Corbin and R. A. Croxton, then boarded the train for Chatham and tendered the nomination to Mr. J. H. Hargrave, Jr., who took the matter under consideration until yesterday, when he declined. Mr. Hargrave is a prominent citizen of Chatham. The primary for the nomination of candidates will be held the 15th of August.

EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS

An Incurable Colored Boy Sent on to the Grand Jury.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTER, VA., July 16.—Superintendent William A. Blankenship is holding an examination for teachers at the public schoolhouse here this week. The attendance has been small, both of white and colored applicants. He will finish his work on Friday.

The County School Board will meet at Chesterfield Courthouse on Monday, the 2d of August.

A meeting of the prominent members of the Methodist Church for this circuit was held here a few days ago to confer and make arrangements for the entertainment of the West Richmond District Conference, which assembles here on the 4th of August.

Justice G. E. Robertson committed to jail a few days ago a small colored youth, named Lewis, for housebreaking and robbing. The boy had been arraigned before him two weeks previous for stealing chickens, and after being whipped by his father for the offense, was warned by the magistrate and let go, owing to his youth of thirteen years, but this time the magistrate felt compelled to send him to the grand jury.

Justice is of opinion he should go to the reformatory, and will seek to get him there.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OAK GROVE, VA., July 16.—Mr. J. G. Carleton, of Toano, who had announced himself a candidate to the Legislature, subject to the Democratic primary, has withdrawn from the race. Mr. Carleton had a large support among the voters and would probably have made a good run.

Friends of Mr. Gregory, of the Kent county, are urging him to announce himself a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the Democratic primary. The Democrats of this district will have great opposition in the person of Mr. J. C. Dunham, of Toano, who has consented to run for the Legislature. Mr. Dunham is one of the most prominent among our new settlers, and if elected will no doubt prove a valuable officer.

A FUSION DEM. PRIMARY

Though Read Out of the Party by the State Committee, They Will Hold Their Primary Under Democratic Rules—Gossip.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., July 16.—Doe Baum, a diminutive newboy, six years of age, was rescued from the river by two other newboys this afternoon. This is the second time within a week that Doe has been rescued by Felix Corlate, one of the boys. Each time the boy had fallen into deep water at the docks and was drowning.

Fusion Democrats of Norfolk county met to-day in Portsmouth to fix August 6th as the time for a primary election. Although excluded from party organization by the action of the State Committee, they will hold the primary under Democratic rules and contest for party recognition for delegates to the General Assembly and all other rights.

ONLY WHITE VOTES.
They will select the county and State officers at the same time. Under party rules they will allow only white votes to be polled. This is a continuation of the old factional fight in which the Fusionists controlled the offices by uniting with the Republicans. They are opposed by the Straight faction.

Judge Waddill dismissed the suit of Macedonia Dickson, the widow of the mate of the schooner Minnie Emma, who was drowned in James River while painting the hull of the vessel. He held that it was a part of the mate's duty to provide for the safety of the crew and himself. The apparatus he used for swinging outside was defective. The suit was for $10,000.

MARINE ENGINEERS ON TRIAL

The marine engineers' strike was revived in the Corporation Court this morning in the case of the indictment of A. C. Meekins and T. J. Downing, Jr., for maliciously assaulting and attempting to injure the officers of the marine engineering company. The fight, or assault, occurred on June 15th, during the progress of the strike of the marine engineers, when the defendants are accused of meeting and beating Priest. Priest was working for the Old Dominion Steamship Company, a marine engineering company, and the defendants say that they approached him to persuade him to quit work. He says they had met the evening before and threatened that he should not work and they would beat him if he persisted in his determination. The case was tried before the Police Court, but after a preliminary hearing, the men indicted by the grand jury. The evidence was conflicting, but the defendants had the preponderance of witnesses to relieve them of the charge that they committed an unprovoked assault on the victim of the fight.

After deliberating half an hour the jury returned a verdict of a fine of $25 against Downing, and $50 against Meekins. The engineers' strike is settled here now with the exception of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, against which there is a nominal strike. This case is one of the results of the strike.

BIDS FOR HIGH

Bids for work of cutting away the Naval Hospital plan in order to widen Norfolk harbor were opened in the office of Captain E. E. Winslow, United States engineer, in charge of local harbor improvements this morning. Only two bids, those of the Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Company, of New York, and the Chesapeake Dredging Company, of Baltimore, were received. Captain Winslow stated that the bids would be forwarded to Washington, as usual, but with the recommendation that both be rejected, because of the fact that they are largely in excess of the amount appropriated by Congress for this work.

The amount available for the work is $363,567. The total bid of the Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Company, the highest bidder, is $237,700, or $99,700 in excess; that of the Chesapeake Dredging Company, $199,850, is $25,850 in excess.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
POPULAR HILL, VA., July 16.—"The Gaps," a comfortable Weaver homestead, was on Thursday the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Effie Virginia, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Weaver, became the bride of Mr. James Mason Bailey.

The spacious parlor was tastefully decorated for the occasion, a profusion of mountain laurel making it a bower of beauty while the hall and dining room were rendered the hall and dining room no less attractive.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., July 16.—Ann Sweeney, a young woman, a bellum female boarding school, of this place, will be used this coming session for the Lexington High School. This step is regarded as necessary on account of the increased attendance upon the Lexington public schools in recent years. Because of the superior advantages offered, many children from the county are attracted every year. The academy building, situated on the corner of Nelson Street and Jackson Avenue, has been leased by the Lexington School Board for three years and it will at once be thoroughly repaired and refurnished. The school will be opened in the fall of 1909.

Beginning with last night, the Wednesday evening services at Trinity Methodist Church during July and August will be devoted to a series of lectures in the life of John Wesley. These services are held under the auspices of the Epworth League, an organization of young people of the church, and consist of brief talks by the leaders appointed and by volunteer speakers.

MR. MANSON ON THE SWEET BRIER BOARD

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ALBANY, N. Y., July 16.—The Board of Directors of Sweet Brier Institution met yesterday afternoon at the institute property about four miles from here. Since the charter has been obtained, two vacancies have occurred in the directory, the first by the death of the Rev. Dr. T. M. Carson, of Lynchburg, and the second was brought about by the removal from the board for reasons said to be satisfactory to all the rest of the directory of Mr. S. R. Harding, who was the executor of Mrs. I. F. Williams, the founder of this institution.

Mr. N. C. Manson, of Lynchburg, was elected to fill one of these vacancies. Mr. Manson will be the only member of the Sweet Brier directory who is not an Episcopalian, he being an elder of the First Presbyterian Church, of Lynchburg. The other vacancy of the board, it is thought, will be filled some time in the near future.

Buildings and other improvements to the amount of something over a hundred thousand dollars were ordered. Among these improvements was a dam, which will give a supply of water for making a line of 40,000,000 (forty million) gallons, and which, with its branches, will be at least a mile and a half long.

Other improvements were a macadamized road to the new railroad siding, which will be a beautiful drive from the building of less than a mile, approaching the college from the body of water, which will be treated as a park; president's house, five professors' houses, an infirmary, a creamery, a power house, with the necessary machinery, laundry, cold storage and station building, and additional arcade and pavilion, thus making this end of the quadrangle complete as far as the academic building.

The two aspirants for senatorial honors are Captain Patterson, of Buckingham, and Mr. R. H. Fluvanna. It is impossible at this writing to say which one of these popular gentlemen will win in Charlotte.
